2018 State Athletic Directors Conference

APRIL 15-17, 2018
EMBASSY SUITES HOTEL
MURFREESBORO, TN

The TIAAA is proud to announce that the Keynote Speaker for the 2018 State Athletic Directors Conference will be Joe Ehrmann. An All American football player, was named to Syracuse University's All-Century Team, lettered in lacrosse and received the Arents Award, SU's Most Distinguished Alumni honor for his contributions to society. Joe played professional football for 13 years and was named Baltimore Colt's Man of the Year. He was the NFL's first Ed Block Courage Award Recipient, and named "The Most Important Coach in America" by Parade Magazine. The Institute chose him as one of The Most Influential Sports Educators in America for International Sport and his revolutionary concepts of transformational coaching are the subject of his book, InSideOut Coaching: How Sports Can Transform Lives. Joe also the subject of New York Times Best-Seller, Season of Life: A Football Star, a Boy, A Journey to Manhood. Among many other awards, the Baltimore Business Journal selected him as the Renaissance Person of the Decade for his dedication and commitment to Baltimore City's betterment. He was the National Fatherhood Initiative's Man of the Year and the Frederick Douglass National Man of the Year award recipient for empowering youth to prevent rape and other forms of male violence. Joe is co-founder of the NFL Foundation-funded InSideOut Initiative aimed at implementing education-based athletics that are co-curricular, character-based and led by transformational coaching.

Please make plans to attend the State Conference on April 15-17, 2018 in Murfreesboro.

InSideOut Initiative

Joe Ehrmann has been an educator, author, activist, pastor and coach for more than 25 years. He was a college All-American athlete who played professional football for 13 years. Among numerous awards, Joe has been named "The Most Important Coach in America" for his work to transform the culture of sports.

Tennessee Athletic Directors Receive National Certification

The National Interscholastic Athletic Administrators Association (NIAAA) is pleased to announce that India Weaver, Athletic Manager at Shelby County Schools, and Scott Dorsett, The Webb School - Bell Buckle, have been recognized by this association as a Certified Master Athletic Administrator.

To earn this distinction, India and Scott has demonstrated exemplary knowledge, contributions and on-going professional development in the field of interscholastic athletic administration. The voluntary certification process included a thorough evaluation of the candidate's educational background, experience, NIAAA Leadership Courses and professional contributions. It culminates with a practical written project.

They both are two of a very elite group of interscholastic athletic administrators nationwide to attain this level of professionalism.

Scott Dorsett was also named the TSSAA Athletic Director of the Year for the Middle Region

Congratulations India and Scott!
